

PARTNERING WITH FACULTY TO ADDRESS CLASSROOM DISRUPTION AND STUDENTS OF CONCERN

DEAN OF STUDENTS (DOS) AND OFFICE OF STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES (OSRR) LISTENING TOUR

The DOS & OSRR invites faculty members to participate in a series of listening sessions. This listening tour is designed to gather feedback, identify trends, highlight challenges, and share transformational practices in supporting students of concern and addressing issues of classroom disruption.

Feedback from the listening tour will be used to enhance faculty support resources for classroom management issues.

Your voice matters! Faculty members are encouraged to attend one of three listening sessions to provide feedback and input into the current issues, resource needs, and transformational practices being utilized to address student and classroom concerns.

Sessions are open to school deans, department chairs, instructional faculty, lecturers, researchers, teaching assistants and graduate students.

Tuesday
March 17th, 2020
1:00PM-2:00PM
Zoom Link:
<https://tinyurl.com/FacultyTour>

Thursday
March 19th, 2020
7:00AM-8:00PM
SOSR2-224

Friday
March 20th, 2020
8:00AM-9:00AM
SOSR2-290

For questions please contact:

Le'Trice Curl (lcurl@ucmerced.edu)

Armando Contreras (acontreras39@ucmerced.edu)

